

Die Happy, Neon

I'm so surprised to see you here
the place you hated I'm so amazed you'd talk to me about how you made it

You still compete trying to defeat your inner demon
i think it's time
for you to leave
To someone new
I think you'll do better

You're blinding Me
Just like neon
You're so beautiful
And so breakable
Just like neon light
Cold inside
Just like Neon
You're Like Neon

I hear a knocking at the door
you've left behind
it makes a sound i've heard before
But this time i don't mind
I'm not sorry anymore
The way you gamble is the way you fall
Now, it took me a while to realise
That you're not better
Nothing's better!

You're blinding Me
Just like neon
You're so beautiful
And so breakable
Just like neon light
Cold inside
Just like Neon
You're Like Neon

I don't mind
I don't care
I don't mind
I don't care

You're blinding Me
Just like neon
You're so beautiful
And so breakable
Just like neon light
Cold inside
Just like Neon
You're Like Neon
