

Die Happy, Take You On A Ride (Superficial Show)

Sittin' deep in a leather chair, it's dark Curtain's up and the masterpiece will start Glitter on the scene
Young and old in the battle for career Lovely people are shifting up a gear
Welcome to the scene

Where are you now?
(come and) save me now
When the lights go down

i wanna take you on a ride we will run away tonight save me from being no-one

i wanna take you far away doesn't matter what they say
save me from being no-one

Sittin' deep in this leather chair, it's cold Shallow stars in this superficial show
On remote control
I feel drunk, feel so dizzy when I see How they move, how they talk and seem to be Poisoning my soul

They're shallow shallow shallow Shallow stars in their superficial shows
The higher the bill the more the ego grows So run away

i don't wanna take this anymore don't wanna be just like a whore who's on remote control i don't wanna be like everyone all we gotta do is run pride comes before a fall
