

Die Krupps, Iron Man

Go shed the old skin -
for the new skin
transgression

let the old flesh -
rotten to trash
resurrection

seize the old laws
riddled by flaws
perfection

open your mind
don't stay behind
progression

weakness - these days are over old flesh - replaced by shiny armour new thoughts - the mind expanding real tasks - that are demanding

this body is invincible
perfection is the principle

feel the clockwork
of the new heart
precision

feed the engine
of your bloodstream
recondition

move your muscles
like a machine
direction

give your life
a new dimension
extension

weakness - these days are over
new thoughts - the mind expanding
