

Die Monster Die, Cadmium Oscuro

Sun shards are splitting the sky, and still you walk
Till the light finds your eye
And underneath hypnotic cries of darkness
Drag you down into a pit
A crimson wreck revolving burns the image out
As you disintergrate...

Eye on a strange highway...
Shadows of birds fly in the night
There's nothing more to say, you got your wish,
You broke the chains

Wish I could make you dissolve into the thin air
Fold my soul in a suitcase as you go, and vanish in despair
Tie the noose, tie the knot into a shoelace
You've forgotten so well, I am back in hell
Yeah, fake that smile like you were made of steel

Falls like a grain of sand, like water through your open hand
Whisper a lie you cannot hide, lock into new ones
Limbs of amphetamine wrestle with pillows, mats of hair
Cum on a magazine, regurgitating souls and dreams

Silent electrocution of an insect
Kill with a turn, smile - metallic laughter chills you
Now, it's time - you're gonna burn... down to the ground
Feel my happiness... burning down

Come, darkness, under the bridge to play
We laughed like children yesterday
The wine is dried on the vine, the water's cold
I want to dive in one more time

Deep - red - deep - red
Run on hills of steel... run on hills of bone and steel...
