

Die Monster Die, Wallflower Garden

There's a space so wide
Between you and I...
It's widening
Don't fall in...

Wallflower garden,
We'll dance from here to nowhere

Believing none, we pray;
It wasn't meant to be this way
Shattered looking glass
Makes such a pretty scratch...

I hide behind the others,
Where the sun don't shine,
But can you see the looking out...

Growing up trying to find the sun?
Growing up trying to find the light within...

Inside our army the petals fall
Stems cut off, attached to nothing at all
Shattered looking glass
Makes such a pretty scratch...
