

Die Radio Die, Life Is Beautiful

It's wonderful,
Spending time together.
We'll go out dancing, we'll try romancing
Whatever you find more interesting.
Time falls, like leaves from an autumn's tree.
False love, it's all we know.
It's so much better
Not knowing what you'll be receiving on Christmas morning.
Under the big tree you decorated
Oh so lovely, with your family.
Woo!
Ashes to dust
And water to rust.
I'll go back the way I came.
If ever there's a time
To sing and dance.
Won't give the Rocks a chance.
Life is Beautiful!
Life is Beautiful.
Life is Beautiful.
[screaming]
[another scream or two]
