

Die Toten Hosen, Agent X

You never say what you feel,
you're like a cog in a wheel.
You better be quiet, never rebel or riot.
Could it be that you are free?

When their eyes can see
what you're doing all day long,
whistle hum or sing a song.
Don't start to run, they've got a gun.

Whatever you say,
whatever you do,
Agent X is watching you.

You come home early, you come home late,
there's only someone who will wait.
Someone knows if you're for or against,
what you think and what you say.

They try to look inside your head,
you're in a cage until you dead.
You never say what you feel,
you're like a cog in a wheel.

Whatever you say,
whatever you do,
Agent X is watching you.

Don't be afraid,
try to escape.

Whatever you say,
whatever you do,
Agent X is watching you.
