Die Toten Hosen, Born To Lose

[Originally by Johnny Thunders]

Well that's the way it goes This city so cold And I'm so cold That's what I know

Born to lose I said hey - born to lose I said hey - born to lose Oh baby I'm born to lose

I have nothing to do I have nothing to say Only one thing that I want

Living in the jungle It ain't so hard Living in the city It'll eat out your heart
