

Die Trying, Conquer The World Feat Jacoby Shaddix

The used to say we were born to lose, that we'd never make it our whole lives through that we'd be stuck in this dead end town with the whole world against us we set out on our own to find our way of life and our way around they tried to say we'd be nothin they only said it just to keep us down they were never gonna get me down they were never gonna keep us down

'Cause I am everything I said I'd ever be so fuck you and fuck your town 'cause I got dreams I'm gonna conquer the world just you wait 'n see
I'm proving you wrong every single day

(Jacoby Shaddix)
I remember as if it was yesterday the good ol' days back in nineteen-ninety-three through thick and thin you are my blood brother we all got drunk and sang our songs it's what we did for fun they tried to say we'd be nothin' they only said that just to keep us down but you can't hold me down they keep runnin' their mouths sayin' somethin' that I don't want to hear

'Cause I am everything I said I'd ever be
so fuck you and fuck your town 'cause I got dreams
I'm gonna conquer the world
just you wait 'n see
I'm proving you wrong every single day

Now we're old and we'll never be the same we don't live by the rules and that will never change
