

Die Trying, Runaway Perfect

No one said this would be easy , easy
No one said that you weren't right , right
You always stop to think about the way things were
But what's good is gone
And now your time to try and run away

*chorus*

The last time you ran away
You said you'd be back again
It's the last time you run away
You're never going back to him, no

You lose yourself into your mirror, it's clear
You use your makeup to cover up your life
You always stop to think about the way
things were
But what's good is gone
And now's your time to try and run away

*chorus*

The last time you ran away
You said you'd be back again
It's the last time you run away
You're never going back to him, no

'Cause the pressure's got you
And you can't fight, fight no more
'Cause the pressure's got you
And you can't fight, fight its the last time, its the last time

*chorus x2*

The last time you ran away
You said you'd be back again
It's the last time you run away
You're never going back to him, no
