

Diesel Machine, Driven By Pain

when I think of you I want to make you bleed how I feel your life means nothing to me when you are alone
that's when death will come waiting there in fear no way you can stop me now

DRIVEN - I'M DRIVEN BY PAIN

I cannot control the inner strength of mine surrounded by people they never know they're going to die when I get this way
there's a deep rage inside when I explode
don't be in the way

welcome to this pain
I'll remain
welcome to this....

I'M DRIVEN BY PAIN

hate breeds more hate I can't stop it
now it's pushing to the surface I suggest you run somewhere far from me I am not responsible for what you're about to see

welcome to this pain
I will still remain
welcome to this....
