

Diesel, Nocturnal Dilemma

We, are faced with millions of choices
But the outcome never is good
Tonight we all will pause
Stuck in a state of uncertainty

The night is nearing its end
Our time is running out
The clock continues to tick
Our decision must come soon

Nocturnal Dilemma
It's our Nocturnal Dilemma

Evil, presents itself on every side
A vexatious alternative
A question with no answer
What course will we pursue?

A strong dilemma in a desperate case!
To act with infamy, or quit the place.
The time has come to just give up
This overbearing stress is just too much

An argument, which presents an antagonist
With two or more tough choices
But they are equally against him
Whichever alternative he chooses

Nocturnal Dilemma
It's our Nocturnal Dilemma

We, are all along for the ride
A ride that's out of control
Our train has been derailed
There's no way back on track

A strong dilemma in a desperate case!
To act with infamy, or quite the place.
The time has come to just give up
This overbearing stress is just too much

We now will flip a coin
It's heads or tails either way
They both are negative outcomes
It's all downhill from here
