

Diffuser, New High

My life is fading sick and tired of waisting time and my back is breaking underneath all these lies this feels like second best I'm trapped in false content my cup is half empty and dripping with envy right now I'm feeling like no ones gonna help me but myself (chorus)

I'm looking for a new high, new high
I don't wanna get left behind
I'm looking for a new high, new high
trying just to get the feeling right

No motivation elevation is hard to find I'm not impatient but everyday is a common grind my head is spinning round I need to straighten out my cup is half empty but that don't upset me right now I'm feeling that know ones gonna help me but myself

(chorus)

Too much of the same routine has held me up (too much of the same routine has held me up)
but I'm willin to leave the past with the past (I'm willin to leave it all behind)
I have to believe I finally had enough (I need to feel I've had enough)
The first step is the hardest one to make (chorus)

(repeat 3x)

I'm looking for a new high, new high

Trying just to get the feeling right
To get me through the night
