

Digimon, Always Whenever

The train to tomorrow runs on broken tracks
I keep turning back in hesitation
Why is it that when we hold hands
And run together, it gives us so much strength?

Always, always, whenever
We're connected
Always, always, whenever
We can fly
Always, always, whenever
We're all together
I know, I know, no one
Is alone

That melody in my memories is distant and faded
Now I'm so small and always sighing
Why is it that when we look each other in the eye
And sing together, our smiles are invincible?

Always, always, whenever
If you open your heart
Always, always, whenever
I can come and see you
Always, always, whenever
I hear everyone's voices
I know, I know, everyone
Can be strong

Always, always, whenever
We're connected
Always, always, whenever
We can fly
Always, always, whenever
We're all together
I know, I know, no one
Is alone

Always, always, whenever
If you open your heart
Always, always, whenever
I can come and see you
Always, always, whenever
I hear everyone's voices
I know, I know, everyone
Can be strong
