

Digimon, An Endless Tale (English)

For you and for me
What can I do?

Being led by something unseen
Once again, we
Were able to meet
Passing over the promised time

My feeling is clear (yes)
At the unchanging smile now

The tale endlessly
Chooses you as the protagonist
The many meetings and good byes
Are our guideposts (guideposts)

Wander into an unsolvable puzzle
Even during dreams
Because you were there, because you're here
I became stronger

Even if we part some day (it's okay)
If our hearts call out to each other

I know because it cannot be seen
The miracle that connects us together
Overcomes the rain and the hill of winds and Shines (shines)

The tale endlessly
Chooses you as the protagonist
The many meetings and good byes
Are our guideposts (guideposts)
