

Digimon, Going Strong! Going! My Soul!!

I'll take you there

Come on, let's go! It's a great feeling!
Make it a success, dash to take it back!
OK! OK! Jump over the frame and and feel the passion and excitement

Run! Be loud! Don't mind! Let's go!
The power's immense, yeah, it's unlimited, my soul is full-throttle

Run freely and don't look back
Clear an endless path to tomorrow with your own hands
Keep running forever and don't ever lose
The power of your dreaming soul
You can get there

Come on, let's go! Keep going even if you have to be pushy!
There'll be a lot of mistakes
OK! OK! Knock down the wall and always feel this excitement

Run! Stand proud! Let's fight til the end!
No matter how huge the enemy, I'm not worried, my soul's invincible

Run without hesitation and turn your pain into courage
I know you can grab the future with your own hands
Keep running forever and always believe in
The strength of your dreaming soul
I'll take you there

Run freely and don't look back
Clear an endless path to tomorrow with your own hands
Keep running forever and don't ever lose
The power of your dreaming soul

Run without hesitation and turn your pain into courage
I know you can grab the future with your own hands
Keep running forever and always believe in
The strength of your dreaming soul
You can get there

I'll take you there
