==English translation==

I find no words to describe myself from within Go, fly away
I dont care, I dont care

You find what youre looking for and yet wish for more
You lose what youre looking for and end up missing it

Gone flown away

I see no words to describe my emotions And yet, Im still in pain you dont care, you dont care

and end up missing it

Gone flown away

He suffers and waits endlessly tears forward, never stopping We float on down with the stream the cataract is approaching help us Slow down, stop!
Please!

And it carries us on its back that suddenly breaks
and then we understand
then we understand

And it carries us on its back
then we understand
then were separated
