

Dikta, Losing Every Day

Look around, look around, can you believe what you see? It's amazing...
They're changing it bit by bit
In tiny baby steps, so you won't notice

Chorus:
Maybe we don't realize
What it is we have
Baby, can't you see that we're
Losing every day

As long as they just don't say
What it really is they're doing
When finally you see the light
It will probably be way too late

Chorus x2.

We cannot let this happen to us }x3
Are we too late, are we too late?
Don't give up

I really like who we are, where we are,
How we are, let's not change it

Chorus x2.

Are we too late, are we too late?
Don't give up
