

Dilana, Do You Now

I want you right here
I want you right now
Why don't you come on over
Why don't you do it now
I wanna do you now

Na, na, na ...

So you called me up
You said you're comin' round
So you stood me up
Yeah, you let me down
I felt like a fool, like a fool in love
But when it comes to you
I can't get enough

You said I was pretty
You said I drive you wild
Why did you have to leave me
In the middle of the night

I want you right here
I want you right now
Why don't you come on over
Why don't you do it now
I want you right here, right now
And just called me up
And do it now
I wanna do you now

So I found out
Who you really are
You're at the same table, the same restaurant
It's like I see myself
The way you make her laugh
Oh, I saw you kissin'
Just before you left

Yeah, it made me cry
To see you like that
You took my heart
And now I want it back

I want you right here
I want you right now
Why don't you come on over
Why don't you do it now
I want you right here
Yeah, right now
Why don't you hurried up
And do it now
I wanna do you now

I'm tired of being your weekend fuck
I'm sick of being some chick
I'm done with makin' out on the phone
Yeah, I'm sick of being sick
You see I've got too much self respect
To put up with your shit
That's why I follow my heart, baby
You just follow your dick

Na, na, na ...

Yeah, you fucked me up
Right from the start
But you see the truth is
You never left my heart
(And that's the scary part)

I want you right here
I want you right now
Why don't you come on over
Why don't you do it now
I want you right here
Ooh, right now
Why don't you come on over here
And do it now

I want you right here (Na, na, na, na, na, na)
I want you right now (Na, na, na, na, na, na)
Why don't you come on over (Na, na, na, na, na, na)
Why don't you do it now, now, now
I want you right here (right here)
I want you right now (right now)
You better make it fast (Na, na, na, na, na, na)
I'm waiting now
I wanna do you now
