

Dilana, Great Escape

Makes no difference
My minds made up
I'm leaving today
I have to go, I need to know
There must be more to live then this
Call me a fool
I have to know
Let me go
And search inside myself

Why does my mind always tell me different
To what my heart feels deep inside
Right now my lives a puzzle
And I have feelings I can not hide
I have so many questions on answered
I'm taking the hardest way
I hope you understand
Why I have disided not to stay

Take a look at myself
Trough strangers eyes
Nothing never changes
Till you see the roadborn right
I interpreted my calls differently now
For the first time I see
A pad wait out for me

Call me a fool
Call me unfaithful one
I need a live, I need to know
Why does my mind always tell me different
To what my heart feels deep inside
Right now my live is a puzzle
And I have feelings I can not hide
I have so many questions unanswered
I'm taking the hardest way
I hope you understand
Why I have decided not to stay
Yeah I hope you understand
Why I have decided to walk away
Walk away

Now that I finally know what is missing
Darkness has turned to light
Still live is like a puzzle
Oh maybe one day I'll get a bride
So let me fly
Keep your distance
Lets go our separated ways
I hope you understand
I cant live only yesterday
And I'm not a shamed to say
I'm so scarred but I'll be ok
Please let me get away
I think I found
The great escape
