

Dilana, Secret Of My Soul

I have this one little secret I can't keep anymore and you're the one I wanna share it with Back to those days I wanna go back to the good times
When life seemed so simple and everything was just a breeze
Babe how I miss those times when you and I were so close
We could talk all day laugh all night never go to sleep
I have this one little secret since I met you
And I have to tell you now before I never get the chance again
I love you so much and I never wanna lose you
That's why I'll tell you the secret of my soul
MMM da da da
Back to those times I wanna go back to those times
Oh I feel it when you're not here
I can feel it when you're miles away
When I hear your voice I get shivers down my spine
Just like the very first time you touched me
This feeling's so divine
I have this one little secret I've had all this time
And I have to tell you now before I never get the chance
I wanna tell you that I love you
And I never wanna lose you
Right now I'll tell you the secret of my soul
MMM da da da
Since I met you I've never been the same
Oh I feel so right every day every night every second of the day
I have this one little secret I've had all this time
Babe I love you I need you I want you
I've gotta have you for the rest of my life
And if you leave I'll only have myself to blame
That's why I wanna tell you the secret of my soul
MMM, I feel so much better baby
Now that I've told you the secret of my soul
