

Dilba, Ill Catch A Star

Dilba

Honey with you I glow
Anyone can see I'm happy
With all my heart I know
You are truly good to me
And that's what I need to know
Would you mind being mine Could ti be
You're the right one for me
There's been so much confusion
And I'm familiar with those fears as well
But no one of them could kill my vision and I'll be here to tell you that so...
