

Dilba, No Room For Love

Dilba

Darling, don't be afraid of darkness

Leave your fear with me Don't be convinced by words from the loveless

Don't listen to what they say

Turn around, your pain is happiness disguised in different colors

Bring joy when skies are gray and you'll find love is in everything

Hold on don't hesitate please don't worry

I'll be here all the way
