

Dilba, Peaceful Place

Dilba

Is it a star shine for you
Or is it a dream coming true
But now you're alive finding you're wondering where destiny is taking you
The world will whisper
magic words and thoughts
But no words can replace what I feel
The world will whisper
magic words and thoughts
How come I don't know what it means
When it comes to passion
let's go all the way
If you search you'll find so they say
But I was not looking he came my way
I realize I was a fool
I could have been sleeping a lifetime through
