

Dilmat, Beacuse

Can I get you out of my mind?

Can I leave you now?

It's to late, to late

Can I get rid of your eyes

I see them all the time

It's to late, to late

Everything I want

Everything I need

I see in you smile

? in your way

You presence

You presence

You presence

You're all mine mine

Because of you I get to open your arms

You're all mine mine

Because of you I Can find the sound

You're all mine mine

Because of you I need to feel your body

Right now,

Because of you

Because of you
