

Dime Store Prophets, Mystery

My ship was lost, taking on water
The fog so thick, couldn't see my rings
There you broke, uncharted island
Enchanted, I was wild with chase
Sailed into you
I am in love with a mystery
The mystery is you
I am in love in a mystery
The mystery is true
Like Houdini in his circus days
Pick the locks of this beggar's heart
You're the tapestry over my eyelids
With no beginning, no end
No end to you
I am in love with a mystery
The mystery is you
I am in love with a mystery
The mystery is true
Everything I ever knew is a wash
Speak of things I never knew-I want to
X-ray lover, you see right through me
Understand words I cannot speak
You've penetrated my radar
I await your tractor beam
I am in love with a mystery
The mystery is you
I am in love with a mystery
The mystery is true
