

Dimension Zero, Dead Silent Shriek

A dead silent shriek echoed through the sky darkness spread through the ruin ground the earth-surface cracked with a painful growl the disciples of each master stared never had they seen them ,just felt Power to power the only solution is the end

Armageddon is drawing nearer the only one to be left is me the powers slowly attack deactivating eachothers souls

Confronting their non-eaquals the sight you have never seen in a place you have never been released upon the earth with a dead silent shriek

Dead I move to eternity to decide the beginning the titans are in war destroying their existance in a clash so undescrivable
