

Dina Carroll, Born To Be (Your Lover)

I was born to be your lover
Let me take you to a place
Where you'll be mine
Where you'll be mine

I've been in love
This is not for the first time
And I never knew a love like this before
These emotions cloud my mind
And I lose all sense of time
It's a feeling that I have I must explore

I was born to be your lover
I was born with you in mind
Now is the time to say you love me
Why do you need another reason to be mine

I can't believe this sweet attraction
And I can't believe you make me feel this way
When you're here I lose control
If I let these feelings show
Would you leave me standing here and walk away

I was born to be your lover
I was born with you in mind
Now is the time to say you love me
Why do you need another reason to be mine

It's a mystery to me
As to where we both should be
'Cos you got that something that I can't ignore

I was born to be your lover
I was born with you in mind
Now is the time to say you love me
Why do you need another reason to be mine

If we took this love affair
Made it last beyond compare
If we fell so deep in love
Would we survive

I was born to be your lover
I was born with you in mind
Now is the time to say you love me
Why do you need another reason to be mine
