

Dina Carroll, Do You Think I'm In Love

Sometime I feel so afraid

As I wake up in my normal way
Although it looks like any other day
The rain may be falling on my window pane
But there's no pain
Just the thought of you again

And I need to re-evaluate inside
The reasons why you're always on my mind
What am I to do

Now you're in my life
Could it be I love you in my life
And if I dare to say
I hate the way that I miss him
When he isn't near
Tell me
Do you think I'm in love

I start to think of crazy things to say
For all the reasons I should feel this way
To deny what you're giving I must be insane
Yet my doubts remain
I don't want to be hurt, hurt again

Yet I'm weakening to your love all the time
The need to analyse and question why
Slowly fades away

Now you're in my life
Could it be I love you in my life
And if I dare to say
I hate the way that I miss him
When he isn't near
Tell me
Do you think I'm in love

Could it be, could it be, could it be
That I want you right here in my life
Could it be, could it be, could it be
That I love the way you need me
If this ain't living
If this ain't true
I'm a fool
In love with you

Now you're in my life
Could it be I love you in my life
And if I dare to say
I hate the way that I miss him
When he isn't near
Tell me
Do you think I'm in love