

Dina Carroll, Give Me The Right

It; was only today
I noticed the way
I'm denying the signs
You've been giving
Took somebody to say
They noticed the change
You're what my life
Has been missing

And I won't let go
'Cos tonight I will give everything

Give me the right
To make love to you tonight
And I'll let tomorrow morning
Take its time
'Cos love ain't gonna
Let us wait tonight, no no

Let's not talk anymore
No words can explain
The way that we
Both know we're feeling
So what more can I say
I want you to stay
Your love is all
I believe in

And we won't say no
To a night that will bring everything

Give me the right
To make love to you tonight
And I'll let tomorrow morning
Take its time
'Cos love ain't gonna
Let us wait tonight, no no

Oh now we're alone
And love's found a home
We both need tonight
So there's no more to say
At the end of the day
Just come to me baby
You're what my heart
Has been missing

Give me the right
To make love to you tonight
And I'll let tomorrow morning
Take its time
'Cos love ain't gonna
Let us wait tonight, no no

Don't make me wait
