

Dinosaur Jr., Little Fury Things

What is it?
Who is it?
Where is it?

A rabbit falls away from me, I guess I'll crawl.
A rabbit always smashes me, again I'll crawl.
Tried to think what's over me, it makes me crawl.
Then she runs away from me, faster than I crawl.

I stopped to call, tried to feel it all.
Stuck my hand and pulled real hard,
Got stretched in miles, not in yards.
Then I read about all those who believe all of your lies,
Sunlight brings the rage right in your eyes.

A rabbit falls away from me, I guess I'll crawl.
A rabbit always smashes me, again I'll crawl.
Tried to think what's over me, it makes me crawl.
Then she runs away from me, faster than I crawl.

A rabbit falls away from me, I guess I'll crawl.
A rabbit always smashes me, again I'll crawl.
Tried to think what's over me, it makes me crawl.
Then she runs away from me, faster than I crawl.
