

Dio, Overlove

Seems like heard this song
At least a thousand times before
He just wanted her but she wants more
So build a wall
Keep it all to herself, ooh

Always never seemed to be too much
Reaching out became a spider's touch
Wrapped in chains
Sad remains
Another victim of

Overlove
Overlove

He was just the devil in a thing disguise
Jealousy behind the greenest eyes
Turn the page
Close the cage
On another victim of

Overlove
Overlove, yeah
Overlove
Overlove
Overlove
Overlove

Mamma never left her baby all alone
Baby never knew when she was grown
Now mamma's gone
And come the dawn
You got another victim of

Overlove
Overlove
Overlove
Overlove, love, love, love, love
Overlove
