Diorama, Leaving Hollywood

Emptiness dead-smooth and choking the air Im, leaving Hollywood if you dont care lost in the twilight of self-consciousness trying to picture the smile you might wear

Where are the plastic doves ready to kill the inspiration I try to fulfill Cry for me sister on Valentines day youll find me lying on Hollywood Hills

Spoke to an acolyte coming my way the weather is fine what a wonderful day his bloody robe suits him tolerably well but he can never induce me to stay

Your double-dealing voice hits me so low but Im your henchman so I have to go nobody sees that Im only your frame when I left Hollywood they all will know

Someday you gonna crucify me in a black-painted room you gonna call all your opponents who gonna spit me in the face hit me in the face and I will laugh about everyone Id cover my mug if I could
