</lyrics>

I vision the small wish I had been gazing

Why are you shivering?

The lonely boy looks up at the sunny sky that holds no meaning

Where is the philosophy of spring?

The long lost promise

It cannot be heard anymore

As time goes by it changes shape and disappears

Even now after my heart was taken and rotted

My miserable voice

I am alone

Where is the philosophy of spring?

The long lost promise

It cannot be heard anymore

This is my pledge to you

I cannot live successfully yet

But I think I can change

Even if tomorrow lets me live

The days will not change

It will not end

If my full blown heart blooms again

Then answer me

I can't comfort anybody
