

Disco Ensemble, First Aid Kit

Here I lay in a crashed car
No-one knows when I've left
Here I lay, staring at stars
But I know they're just satellites

The first aid kit 2x
It's useless
It's too late
It offers no help

I heard the sound of the sirens
Long gone in the distance a sweet sonnet
And I have seen no guardian angels
Well, I have my doubts if they even care

Take me to the hospital
Drive fast 'cause I am bleeding
Take me to the hospital
Drive fast 'cause I am bleeding

Snow falls through the windshield
I guess this time my fate is sealed
Here I'll lay forever
They'll find me under the autumn leaves

The first aid kit 2x
It's useless
It's too late
It offers no help

Take me to the hospital
Drive fast 'cause I am bleeding
Take me to the hospital
Drive fast 'cause I am bleeding
