

Dissection, Shadows Over A Lost Kingdom

I - have travelled through eternity
I will - Reign once again
You will never rule again
Hunger - a Thirst for pain
I will - see your kingdom burnt by sins Join my crusade of a time left to come to spill the blood
you're the ones who never saw the sun
Now I hear it, the calling
I hear the calling of the mist
The ancients, and their slumber Eenai will rise again from that sea Prophecy..... from the sea
