

Diva Destruction, Glare

I saw you staring from the corner of my eyes
You eyed me sideways from the other side
I felt you daring me to seek and hide
And through your blindfold now I will abide
Blinded by the glare of your demise
By the glare of your despise
Blinded by the glare of your demise
By the glare of your despise
Why did you size me, why did you try me
Now you remind me, now you're behind me
Now with your vision will you lead the way
I'll hide behind to see just how you play
From your eyes I shall see your truth sway
And from your view I'll know your judgement day
Blinded by the glare of your demise
By the glare of your despise
