

Diva Destruction, Heathcliff

I can't wait and I can't take this anymore Cause it's been too long and it's been too hard and it's way too late.

and you'll never try and i'll never try,
so we'll never know.

You're my Heathcliff,
You're my heathcliff, come back to me
You're my heathcliff, you're my heathcliff

Why can't you see?

that it's been too long and it's been too hard
and it's way too late,
and you'll never try and i'll never try

So we'll never know,
and you'll never admit it,
and i'll never admit it, so we'll never heal,

you're my heathcliff,

Can't you see, can't you see, it's been too long, too long, for us, for us, and our destiny

I'm your Catherine, we are one and the same

Can't you see, can't you see, it's been too long, and i can't wait,

and i can't take this anymore, and i want you, back here with me
