

Diva Destruction, Knight's Disguise

Don't you see, don't you see
How I felt and what you are
What this meant and
What you were to me
Can't you feel, can't you feel
How I bleed when you lead
When you mislead me
How dare you, how dare you
You burned me, you burned us
You burned this, now I see
How you play, played with me
I see your plan, I lived your game
When you turned, on me
Can't you feel, can't you feel
What it could have been, what it
Should have been for us, for us
Now I know, now I know
How you are, in your knight's
In your knight's disguise
So cold, so cruel...
