

Diva Destruction, Talented

I'm so good but i'm so misunderstood my band keeps on playing rock 'n' riffs when i'm trying to be serious and the drummer always got a stiff in his pants jerking of reading old dirty pornomags my songs are beautiful but the just don't get it they will all regret it I'm so talented but they just don't get it... the morons at the radiostation won't play my tune I haven't sold a single copy of my single, released last june I wish you were dead, you will all regret it all I'm asking for is a radiohit liberate the stations from the mainstream shit winning silver is losing gold. I wonder hownmany records we could have sold.
