

DIVIDE, LUST

I just don't know who to trust, no more
Even my own mind is not what it seems like before
I can't believe i cant believe everything is turning on me
I can't believe i cant believe is it too much to ask for?

There is nothing left to lose, the one who does is you
(you'll never change)
Throwing everything from the inside
(you'll never change)

I've put my trust in you, it took so much out of me
I'd die for you yet you've wasted everything you had Watching the world die a slow death
I'm burning down every bridges we made

There is nothing left to lose, the one who does is you
(you'll never change)
Throwing everything from the inside
(you'll never change)

Each words became more meaningless
Should've known but I doubted myself
You chose the lust of another
Where did i go wrong? where did i go wrong?

I've got nothing, nothing left to lose, the one who does is you

There is nothing left to lose, the one who does is you
(you'll never change)
Throwing everything from the inside
(you'll never change)

I've put my trust in you, it took so much out of me
I'd kill for you yet you've wasted everything
