

Divine, Sweet Essence (Your Love Is Something)

Somebody asked me how I knew
Oh, you were the one for me babe
And I was the one for you
I never had to ask myself that question why
Your love is something that I know is mine
Your love is something that I can't deny
Your love is something that I feel inside
And inside
Every day I thank the Lord above
For the sweet essence of your love
I know this love was meant to be
You are the biggest part me
Deeper than the deepest ocean
Oh, I take pride in knowing
That I got you by my side
Ever waiting, ever standing by
Your love is something that I know is mine
Your love is something that I can't deny
Your love is something that I feel inside
And inside
Every day I thank the Lord above
For the sweet essence of your love
I know this love was meant to be
You are the biggest part me
Not an hour out of a million days
No no no no no
Could you ever take your sweet love away
Not a one day out of a million years
Could I ever live without you here
And inside
Every day I thank the Lord above
For the sweetness of your love
Kindness of your love
Patience of your love
One and only lover
Never be another
Your love is something that I know is mine
Your love is something that I can't deny
Your love is something that I feel inside
Feel inside, oh yeah
