

Diviner, The Earth, The Moon, The Sun

Walking in silence
Searching for answers
And peace of mind
Out of illusions
I found the vision again

What is the purpose
Of our existence
And where we'll go
Closing the chapter of life
When this journey will end

Destination,
Fortune, life and death
They point our common fate
Nothing's lost and nothing's stays forever
Everything will change

The Earth, The Moon, The Sun will fall
The universe reforms through cosmic fire
And all the lies of this fake world
Will fade and burn
Like our youth's desire

Centuries seem
As time's grains of sand through eternity
The story of mankind
Ages forgotten in vain

Moments, emotions
Are drops in the sea of immensity
Where do we come from?
Is life just a dream that fades away?

Destination,
Fortune, life and death
They point our common fate
Nothing's lost and
Nothing's stays forever
Everything will change

The Earth, The Moon, The Sun will fall
The universe reforms through cosmic fire
And all the lies of this fake world
Will fade and burn
Like our youth's desire

The Earth, The Moon, The Sun will fall
The Earth, The Moon, The Sun will fall
The universe reforms through cosmic fire
And all the lies of this fake world
Will fade and burn
Like our youth's desire

A new Earth and Moon, a new Sun will rise
Another world will be born in distant places
Your life will pass before your eyes
Like memory from past and empty spaces

The Earth, The Moon, The Sun will fall
New Earth and Moon, a new Sun will rise
The Earth, The Moon, The Sun will fall
Your life will pass before your eyes
