

Dixie Chicks, Thank Heavens For Dale Evans

I grew up on Bob Wills and daydreams My toes were a-tappin' to western swing
I wished upon a star
Atop an old boxcar Chasing rainbows to the place the bluebirds sing
I painted my eyes up like Dolly
Sang with Kitty
Wells 'til mamma screamed Then daddy shook his head as he carried me to bed
And tucked me in a-beggin' me to sing: