

Dizmas, Let This One Stay

Outside of all your subtlety
Upside down while you're straight with me
And I deny that this is your way
Can I, can I still find my way?

Please let this one stay
To help me find your way (your way)
Please let this one stay
To help me find your way (your way)
As I'm drowning,
Engulfing the saltwater air
She begs me to find you,
I acknowledge you there

Cure my cancer with your answer
