

Dizmas, Night Divine

Jump ship or just cast the anchor!
We're here to fight and we won't back down
Some say that we're all one killer
You won't know till you see our route
I'll rest when you see what's real
And time tests your vision of truth
It's some kind of feeling that sings I'm in love
Let's somehow embrace it as we all die young

Oh night divine, we're falling away
Oh night divine, this world's a phase
And we will fade away

Crash course till you find the answer
The lights dim and we waste our time
They say that we heal much faster
Well, just wait and enjoy the ride
Reach for the strength that is real!
Love changes all that you feel

Oh night divine, we're falling away
Oh night divine, this world's a phase
And we will fade away
As time slips by we're dying young
Cut down to size, the room is dark
And I can't find a way

Yeah, you can move me (die young)
Yeah, you can move me, move me
Yeah, you can own me (die young)
Yeah, you can own me, own me
