

DJ Bobo, Celebrate

Refrain
Celebrate
Every night and day
Celebrate
Never runaway
Celebrate
Wake up its not a dream
Its never too late
This life is for free

When youve got the key
To reality
Lets celebrate
All the dreams come true
Just for me and you
Lets celebrate

C-Teil:
Be yourself and youll see
The best things in your life are free
Dont give up, stay alive
Honesty can make you survive

Rap 1:
Can you see all these people
Walking through the streets of life
Without a smile in their faces how can they survive
Its a dangerous world they are living in Between imaginations and expectations on their way
To the point of no return
They only live once and have to learn, your Life is too brief to waste time for hate
Its never too late to celebrate

Rap 2:
Reality, is what theyre looking for Love is what they all adore
Feeling like a bird in a cage covered by a curtain flying into a rage reaching
The point of no return
Let it burn, let it burn
They only live once and they have to learn, your
Life is too brief to waste time for hate
Its never too late to celebrate
