

DJ Bobo, I'll Be There

Refrain:

Ill be there
Whenever you need me
I know you believe me
As soon as you call my name
Ill be there
Whenever you need me
I know you believe me
Without you it wont be the same
Ill be there

C-Part:

Ill be there
Whenever you need me
Ill be there
I know you believe me
Ill be there
Whenever you need me
I Wanna be with you all my life

Verse 1:

Ill be there when you need a friend
Ill be there with a helping hand
Understand one another till the end
Ill be there if you feeling pain
Ill be there when you call my name
Even if clouds are pouring down the rain

Verse 2:

Ill be there every day and night
Ill be there and I hold you tight
See the sky when the stars are shining bright
Ill be there when youre feeling down
Ill be there when you need a clown
Round and round, whenever youre in town

Rap:

Ill be your lover, your brother, your friend
I hold your hand, like nobody else, till the end
Theres only one life, and we share it together
Theres only one love, and its ours forever
If your feeling pain, call my name, no shame
even if clouds are pouring down the rain
love aint no game like truth or dare
Ill gonna be there
