

DJ Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince, Brand New Funk

Ready Rock C- &quot;get down&quot;

[Fresh Prince] It's new, it's out of the ordinary It's rather extraordinary, so yo bust this commentary
A literary, genius, and a superior beat creator have come together, and we made a musical composition which we think is a remedy to cure all the dance floors that's empty You wanna dance? We got what you want Jazzy Jeff and Fresh Prince bustin out with the brand new funk

-Get down brand new funk-hit it

It was kind of an accident, the way that it happened
One day I was rappin, and on the beat, Jeff was backin me up And all of a sudden, he brought in a cut And I dropped my microphone and said, &quot;What the...? Hold up, Jeff, wait a minute, play it&quot;
He just smiled and said, &quot;Yeah def ain't it?&quot;
It was {funky} it made wanna {get, get down!} And we knew almost at once it was the {brand new funk}
So we continued to listen to it
And we knew it was def when I started rappin to it
So I gave a hi-five to Jeff and without hesitation popped in my cassette
I took it home that night, and analyzed it Rewound the tape over and over, and memorized it That Friday, we went to the club And out and out cold tore it up!
You shoulda seen the people dancin and shakin and movin and jumpin and spinnin and clappin, while the beatboxin was groovin and screamin and yellin while on the microphone I was flowin Fresh rhymes I was showin, the people say, &quot;Yo keep goin&quot; So I co rock, while Jeff was on the beatbox Special assistance from my homeboy Ready Rock
People barged just to get up front to get a bird's eye view of what we call the brand new funk
