

DJ Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince, Lovely Daze

It's ten a.m. and I just woke up Walked to the window and opened the shades up Sun so bright that I can hardly see but I'm a black man so I pass on a tan dip to the bathroom take me a shower but first called up my girl told her be ready in an hour I was still a bit tired man I'm laggin' grabbed the tooth brush to kil the dragon ooh have mercy great day in the morning turn on the water and I'm stretchin' and yawnin' tryin' to get a blend to the hot winter cold man I'm young but why I feel so old get it just right then step to the mirror rubbin' my eyes to make my vision get clearer everything looks a-o.k and today is gonna be a lovely day

Chorus:

(a lovely day) lovely day lovely day lovely day lovely daze (lovely daze) X 2

So I jet out the crib and hop in the benzo today is my girls day can't none of my friends go just me and her top down on the highway if you're gonna do it then why not do it the fly way first a car wash next the barber shop then off to my girls crib that's my next stop a dozen roses a card and candy I'm a true mackadocious Mr. Romanty she hoped in and she asked where we're goin' yo we like a twig in the nile we just flowin' maybe to the beach or maybe hook up a picnic but yo it doesn't matter cause today we just kickin' it I threw in my homemade slow tape and off to the beach for some beautiful landscape man this is a bonafide lovers delight got the ocean on the left the mountains on the right I said yeah cause that's the way I was feelin' free as a bird got the clouds for a ceiling I wish that I could press the gas and fly away today has been a lovely day

it's dark outside now and it's gettin' kinda late the date was great but here comes the moment that I hate it's too bad a lovely day has gotta end up like this a wave goodbye with a hug and good night kiss mmmm I said good night my lovely I said mmmm good night my lovely she said what you gonna leave me all alone oh I forgot to tell you there ain't nobody home now y'all know me I'm a real cool guy but inside things was kinda like the fourth of July I walked inside I said hello there miss then she gave me a kiss oh you want some of this unh passion building mentally bonding slowly I caress her and she's respondin' just close your eyes and keep thinkin' of me here I come girl
mmm lovely
